

Ahoskie Library hosts Local Author and Artist, Mrs. Viola Veale

The Ahoskie Public Library invites the community to visit with Mrs. Viola Veale as she presents her children's book titled, "Sunny and Cloudy", here in the Library at 210 East Church Street in Ahoskie. On Thursday, August 3, 2017 at 2pm, Mrs. Veale will read her book, Sunny and Cloudy". After the storytime, Mrs. Veale will have books for sell and signing.

Mrs. Veale, a native of Bertie County, is an artist, a poet, a playwright and an author. This new book is beautifully illustrated by her son in law, Steven Gray. Mr. Gray is a visual artist, illustrator, cartoonist, sculptor, digital artist and musician born in Brooklyn and raised in Queens, NY. This is his first children's picture book illustration project.

The Book, "Sunny and Cloudy", is the story of a little girl, Sussie, who imagines how the weather works. She prefers the sunny days but also understands how important it is for the rain to fall.

It will be a very special day for us here at the library, to welcome such an outstanding author and artist! But it will also be a special day for Mrs. Veale! August 3 is her 73rd Birthday and we will be honored to celebrate that special day with her!

Please make plans to visit the Ahoskie Public Library on Thursday, August 3, at 2pm, for Mrs. Viola Veale's Book Reading and Signing and stay to help us wish her a very Happy 73rd Birthday!

For more information, please contact the Ahoskie Public Library at 252 332-5500.

